James, a young prodigy with a melancholic charm and a voice that could break your heart, was making waves with his early recordings.

Early Encounters and Mutual Admiration

Their paths first crossed in the vibrant musical circles of New York City. Carole, a seasoned professional, would have undoubtedly recognized the raw talent and unique voice of the younger Taylor. James, in turn, would have held King in the highest regard, given her prolific songwriting output and her significant contributions to the Brill Building sound.
