Tips for Learning Electric Guitar Songs

Knowing what to play is only half the battle. Here’s how to effectively tackle learning new songs on your electric guitar.

Start Slow and Steady

Don't try to play at full speed right away. Use a metronome or the playback speed features in online tabs/videos to play the song at a much slower tempo. Focus on getting the notes, rhythms, and techniques correct.

Break It Down

Most songs can be broken down into smaller sections: intro, verse, chorus, bridge, solos, outro. Master each section individually before trying to put it all together.

Listen Actively

Beyond just hearing the song, actively listen to the guitar parts. Pay attention to the tone, the dynamics, the subtle nuances of the playing. Try to replicate what you hear.

Use Resources Wisely

Online tabs, guitar lesson websites, YouTube tutorials, and song transcriptions are invaluable tools. However, be aware that not all tabs are created equal. Cross-reference different sources if possible.

Practice Regularly

Consistency is key. Even 15-30 minutes of focused practice each day will yield better results than one long session once a week.

Don't Forget Technique

As you learn these songs, pay attention to the techniques they employ: bending, vibrato, hammer-ons, pull-offs, palm-muting, alternate picking, fingerpicking. These are the tools of the electric guitar trade.

Record Yourself

It might feel awkward at first, but recording your playing is one of the best ways to identify areas for improvement that you might not notice while you’re playing.
